PLEASE READ THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Registration and Personal Information

You agree that:

- All information provided in this application form is known to be accurate and correct on the date of completion. You will advise Wakestock of any changes to this information if any may occur.
- Your unique ticket code is appropriate and does not violate any copyright. Wakestock reserve the right to modify any code it deems to be offensive, inappropriate or improper.

2. Promotional Materials

You understand that:

- Wakestock will provide Ambassadors with all their promotional materials. It is understood that Ambassadors have a responsibility not to infringe on any third party in their promotional activities. Wakestock will accept no responsibility for any inappropriate use of these materials, examples of which include fly postering, or distributing flyers in restricted or private areas. Ambassadors must also not interfere with other ambassadors promotional activities (e.g. taking down posters). Individuals found to be in breach of any of the above may have their ambassador status revoked.

3. Wakestock Ambassador Duties

You agree to:

- Positively represent the Wakestock brand and its partners throughout the entire Ambassador process.
- Assist in the festival's promotional activities in the period up to the event.
- Use all promotional materials provided effectively and request more when required.
- Distribute your unique ticket sales code to potential customers and offer support when necessary.
- Regularly provide feedback from customers regarding festival affairs (Line-up, concerns, and positives).

4. Bank Details

You understand that:

All successful applicants will be required to provide bank details in order for commission to be paid. Commission will be paid in full in the week after the event.

5. Commission & Incentives

Ambassadors will earn £1 for every ticket sale registered through their unique sales code. Commission will be paid in full the week after the event. Please allow up to 10 working days for payments to clear.
